Mr. Gallagher's Note

Dear Student, as our academic year draws to a close we have much to celebrate and many happy memories to reflect upon. Your time is finally here, you did it! May I applaud you for your dedication to your development as a young responsible adult, to your education and to your school. You are our future.

That said as you read and peruse this wonderful collection and compilation of pictures and memories the fear of the unknown is to the forefront of your thoughts. The unknown about whether you will get the opportunity to celebrate your accomplishments with your parents and family looking on. Fear that those moments you spent with your friends on that last day of school before all schools closed will be the last memories you get to make with those friends. Regret that you did not get the chance to say goodbye and thank you to your peers, teachers and staff members.

At times like these always remember the words of Tom Althouse:

"This is our time. Seize the moment" "Fear not the unknown. It is a sea of possibilities"

Now as you are about to embark on a journey none of us has gone through before please realise you are pioneering a way for us all, stepping into the unknown. Because of the Coronavirus shutdowns, many of you aren't finishing your schooling in the traditional way. It seems unfair, and it truly is. But please know this, we recognise your efforts and applaud you. We see the hard work you've gone through and the time you've put in. You pushed through the hard times. So when your children or grandchildren ask you what you did during your teenage years you will be able to tell them "My generation and I were dealt a difficult hand of cards and with them made our lives into something extraordinarily wonderful."

This publication captures your imprint on Cashel Community School over these past five to six years. Sometimes schools are seen as places where students learn, teachers teach and points are produced at the end of a six year process. And yet, of course, an education is so much more. We want you to achieve your full potential academically but we also want to truly educate, so that a graduate student of Cashel Community School is a rounded human being, capable of making the most of what opportunities open up for him or her. Not too long ago society became conscious of the need to be able to deal with change. We were told that our children could expect to have several different types of jobs over a lifetime. The students you will read about in this publication are equipped to deal with change. As Sixth year students you have been a credit to yourselves and your families in the way you have conducted and applied yourselves and for the spirit and enthusiasm you have brought to our school. You contributed a wealth of talent in every aspect of school life during your time with us. So much has been accomplished here during the years both within and outside the classroom. I urge you to continue to make the most of your talents, to always do your best and to realise your full potential. What we sow now, we will harvest later.

So my dear students, as you embark on a new chapter of your lives, always remember that learning does not stop inside the classroom. As Henry L. Doherty said, "Be a student as long as you still have something to learn, and this will mean all your life." Every experience in life will teach you something. You just need to keep an open mind and open heart to see what lessons the world has to offer. I hope you have enjoyed this wonderful production of life for which I am forever humbled. Going forth I wish your health, happiness and success for the future.

Mr. Gallagher

Mr. Nolan's Note

Dear Class of 2020 I hope this Chaplains note for your Yearbook finds you and your families well. As I write these words we are living in the midst of a new reality. I am very mindful that you have been through all sorts of emotions since we last met back in March. Normally we would be in the midst of exam and graduation preparation at this time. However we have embraced a new normal and our school community and society in general has had to adapt in ways we could never have foreseen. It saddens me that we were not afforded an opportunity to say a proper goodbye to you as a Leaving Cert class, however, I look forward to this happening in whatever form in the not too distant future. There have been major changes in how we go about our daily lives; not least of all for you with the new arrangements surrounding the Leaving Cert. I do not want this note to be downbeat or lamenting issues beyond our control as I feel you as a group are about much more than that. We all have to embrace hope. Some things always remain the same and one of these is the impact we have on others. Allow me to be one of many voices who will tell you that you made a very significant impact on everybody in Cashel Community School. For the past year you were the leaders in our school and even before that. You now go to that next phase of your life armed with a resilience and fortitude that is an example to those around you. You are now leaders in education by the way you adjusted to your recent new educational challenges.

Cashel Community School will always be a major part of your life and a part, I hope, you look back on with fondness. You will be remembered as a group with vibrancy, energy, integrity and a sense of fun while all the time being focused on what was important. Your contribution spanned every aspect of school life. My wish for you is that you embrace the next phase of your life with an energy that will see you fulfil all your dreams, for that is what life is about. What I would ask of you, if I may, is that you do so with kindness and gentleness. These are true virtues. These are also virtues that I have seen in you each day. Take care of yourselves and each other and Reach Out with Care and Kindness ... it is upon this ROCK that our school community is built. A school community you helped shape and a school community that will miss you.

May Love and Laughter light your days and warm your Hearth and Home.
 May Good and faith-ful Friends be yours wherever you may Roam.
 May Peace and Plenty bless your World with a Joy that long endures and May all life's passing seasons bring
THE BEST TO AND YOURS

I had the pleasure of starting in Cashel Community School with you on the same day. You will always hold a special place in my heart.
 Stay Safe and Well.
 God Bless You Always.

Mr. Galvin Year Head Note

Taking over from Mr. Scully are big boots to fill, but when you're taking over in a role that allows you to facilitate the development of a wonderful group of individuals, it makes the experience so much easier and extremely satisfying, especially now that the fruits of that are evident to all. In October 2018, I took on the role of Year Head to our current Leaving Cert students and their enthusiasm and drive to improve as individuals and as a group was something that amazed me from the beginning and makes me so proud to this day.

My mantra from the beginning was to listen to them and their ideas, and as I said above, rather than lead but to 'facilitate' their development. Fearless and confident in their own ability, they pioneered the art of presenting to their peers at assemblies and it was the presence of a strong mutual respect for each other that made this practice such a success. The students would prepare and present the material themselves and the other students always listened respectfully. This reflected the maturity that was evident in these young adults that were developing in our school.

They were always full of great ideas and initiatives and never shirked being challenged to come up with ideas themselves, and this was highlighted when a group prepared and shared videos in the art of planning and studying so as to have as a resource for their peers. Their focus was always, how we can improve as an individual but also as a group and the support and care they show for each other is always reflected in their actions.

But aside from these high levels of motivation and focus, it is their friendly, good spirited nature that I will remember and miss most. The 'craic' at the lockers in the morning, analysing a match or a new fashion trend being set. And there was always the discussions on the value of 'being on time' and the humorous challenging of the definition of 'being actually late!!' It always set a positive tone for the day and I always left their company in good spirits. Yes, there were moments of conflict, but they were always addressed respectfully and with a focus that we as a school were trying to do the best for you as a student. Through their actions, they have left a strong legacy of self-improvement, which has filtered through our school community. They have shown others the many positive aspects of our school through their achievements during their time with us.

I feel they are leaving as strong minded, independent individuals who recognise the importance of the power of 'their voice' and also of compassion and care for each other. They have created strong friendships, which will last forever and will act as a support for each other as they navigate through the next stages of their lives.

So please, keep that positive outlook in life, keep that smile that was always there on your face and please don't ever forget us. We will always remember the impact ye have had on our school and will always be so proud of what ye have done for our community. All the best and mind yourselves.

Trevor Galvin - Sixth Year Year Head

GAISCE

Sarah Moloney

Taking part in Gaisce was a fantastic experience for the 25 or so students who took up the challenges involved starting with the Bronze Award in TY. Each of us set ourselves targets to achieve in the 3 areas required. We got involved in our local community giving an hour a week to helping in areas like Tidy Towns, training underage teams, local choir or Guides. Our second challenge involved improving our own fitness and activity levels, again giving a minimum of an hour a week to this. Thirdly we committed to taking on a personal challenge to improve or take up something new. People challenged themselves to learn a musical instrument, master some skills of a new sport or improve their IT skills. The final and extremely enjoyable part of Gaisce was the overnight adventure trip, staying in Ballymacarbray and hiking in the Comeragh Mountains. We were delighted to be presented with our certificates and beautiful medals at the end of year TY ceremony. Thanks to all the teachers who organise Gaisce in the school. A number of us continued on and completed the Silver Challenge in 5th year and who knows some might yet go for the Gold Award and follow in the footsteps of a number past students.

Football and Camogie

Meabh E.Ryan

It has been a great honour and an absolute pleasure to have played for CCS for the past six years. I can honestly say that I have enjoyed every single minute of it, as myself and my team members have experienced first-hand both the highs and lows which are integral parts of sport. The tears of disappointment, heartache and great joy, euphoria even, have been shared among an extraordinary group of girls. The enduring friendships formed and the blissful memories created will surely last a lifetime. Camogie and Ladies' Football is certainly going from strength to strength in CCS, with exceptional performances which I believe provide master classes in both camogie and football excellence. This is borne out in our winnings of All Ireland, Munster and County titles. Both teams are made up of players from various different clubs but when we represent CCS, we play together as one cohesive and tenacious unit, embracing both our competitiveness and our sense of sportsmanship in equal measure. The titles which we have gained would definitely not have been achieved without the commitment, hard work and dedication of our trainers, to whom we owe a huge debt of gratitude. We acknowledge and appreciate that these teachers sacrificed their time to facilitate training sessions at lunchtime, after school and during school holidays. This effort on their part made a huge contribution to our winning of the silverware that has pride of place in our school. On behalf of both teams, I wish to extend my heartfelt thanks and sincere gratitude to Mr. Ryan, Ms Gilmore, Ms. O'Neill, Ms. O'Dwyer, Ms Sheehan and Mr Hynes. Both teams wish our upcoming teams all the best in the future.

Senior Hurling

Lorcan Carr

The 2019/20 Senior Hurling year began in a hectic manner with many challenge matches organised by Mr. Ryan and Mr. Roche. The campaign did not get off to a great start with a heavy defeat to Doon in their backyard. In hindsight, it seems this defeat was a blessing in disguise as it made the whole panel realise we were well off championship pace. After some strong words from both Mr. Ryan and Mr. Roche the team went back to training in the following weeks with a new sense of focus and determination.

When the season eventually kicked off with our first game against Colaiste Christ Ri, the high intensity training paid off and Criost Ri were routed with a score line of 7-21 to 0-05. As the score line showed, it was a dominant all round performance from both our forwards and defenders. Rice College Ennis, were the next opponents in the round of 16. Played on a treacherous, wet December day, the boys once again fought hard and came up with a sound victory of 1-17 to 0-08.

As the Christmas holidays arrived the training did not stop. Training and challenge matches continued right up until the 23rd of December and commenced once again shortly after the New Year began. There was superb commitment from all of the panel over this time and this winter training paid off when on the 8th of January, the team were faced with the very physical, athletic side of Causeway Comprehensive School. Fighting for every ball and resolutely refusing to give in, the whole team had to dig deep in extra time to eventually come out with a victory – partly thanks to the bravery of Paddy Moloney!!

In the semi-finals we faced off against St. Augustines of Dungarvan. This was another tight contest with two evenly matched teams. But when it came down to the crunch, the boys once again showed great character and secured a spot in the final against Doon.

The day of the Munster Final arrived on the 15th of February. Unfortunately, to the disgust of the players the match was cancelled due to Storm Dennis. It would have been very easy for this to dishearten the boys but to their credit they all responded positively. When the Final eventually arrived on the 22nd of February, we were eager to perform in front of a large crowd. Playing against a strong Doon outfit who had an impressive run to the final, another tight competitive game ensued. Against the wind, against the odds and with a man down the team pulled through in the 2nd half in a dramatic finish achieving a great Munster Final win.

A few weeks later, the team faced Connacht Championships Oranmore in the All Ireland Semi-Final. This ended in another convincing victory for Cashel Community School. The All Ireland Final was then fixed for Semple Stadium against Leinster Champions Birr. Unfortunately, this has been postponed indefinitely due to Covid-19. All of the lads are of course extremely eager to play this game no matter how long we have to wait.

Huge thanks to Mr Ryan and Mr. Roche and all who brought us on this journey.

My experience in CCS

Presentation made on Open Night to 6th class pupils and parents by Jennifer Fogarty
Chairperson Students Council

Good Evening,

It's hard for me to believe that I am now the sixth year standing up here speaking at the open night. This opportunity has allowed me to think back on my six years here, and I would like to share that with you this evening.

The most valuable and precious thing this school has given me is friendship. My class in primary school had just 9 people, and walking in on my first day of first year, I didn't know how I would remember everyone's name and if I would ever have enough time to get to know them. But it turns out that 6 years is enough, and I have friends now who are right there in my happiest memories, who motivate me, inspire me and most importantly, make me laugh. And laughter is what I will remember about Cashel when I leave. A lesson that everyone here learns is how to continually strive to better yourself, while also being able to appreciate where you are and make the most of everyday. In Cashel, "making the most of everyday" means enjoying life while also reaching your personal and academic goals.

Thanks to my time here I know what it feels like to be part of a community and I know what 'togetherness' feels like. There has always been someone somewhere to turn to when I needed help or advice on something. There is always a teacher to tell me why I didn't do as well as I wanted to. When I deserved a pat on the back, I got one, and whenever I needed to pull up my socks, somebody told me that too.

My peers and I eventually found our place here. Everyone discovered their interest, their niche. Our talents have been nurtured and encouraged and we've always been pushed to be better students, better sportspeople, better musicians and better citizens.

From an academic point of view, I am and have been extremely fortunate to have committed and enthusiastic teachers. They have always found a way to explain something in a way that I personally could understand and were always happy to answer my questions after class. Coming up to exams many of teachers take time to do extra revision with us at lunch time or after school, so I've always felt that our teachers take our success personally. They want us to do well just as much as we want to do well ourselves. I also always had every opportunity to maximise my performance here because I could choose the subjects I was good at. I have always had a keen interest in languages and was able to study both French and German for Junior Cert and for my Leaving Cert I could to pursue the two science subjects I wanted.

An important part of life here is looking outwards rather than inwards. There always seems to be someone organising something to help others who need it. This has largely shaped how I view my own place in society and I'm sure if I asked my peers, they would agree. The curriculum for subjects like CSPE contained all the information necessary to convince us of how lucky we are to be living in a country with free education and running water, but I believe that it was my teachers who really explained these concepts and their importance that made me realise just how grateful I should be for the endless opportunities at my disposal. I haven't met anyone here in my 5 and a quarter years who underestimate the hardship faced by so many in our society, and the initiatives and fundraisers that are always happening here are usually taken very seriously. In short, there are a lot of good people here.

Playing sports, music and becoming involved in the Student Council all served to grow my confidence and strengthen other, non-academic skills. I never thought I would be confident enough to stand up and talk to a room full of people, but here I am. This school has offered me endless opportunities to help me get on the road I wanted to be on and I feel confident that I'm equipped to deal with the challenges that will soon be thrown at me.

Regardless of where all of you end up next September I wish you all a happy six years ahead. Thank you.

Teacher Interview

Gerada Barry

1. What's the hardest thing about being a teacher?

The hardest thing is when you see potential in a student and you try your best to get them to engage with the work but they don't. It is hard to see someone not work when you know they would do really well with a little effort.

2. What made you want to teach English?

I have always been a reader so English was easily my favourite subject in school. I had a great teacher whose passion for the subject was infectious. I wanted to teach a subject that I loved. English is so creative too.

3. If you could be any student for a day, who would it be and why?

I would be any of the talented students who are in the School Musicals because I would love to have their talent and confidence to sing in public.

4. If you won the lotto and decided to give up teaching, what would you do instead?

I would be a novelist – I reckon there is a book or two in me.

5. If you could be in any teachers classroom, even for a day, who would it be and why?

Ms. Murphy's class because I think she is a really great teacher, who does cool stuff with her classes – and she bakes for them!!

6. How do you think students will remember you and your class?

I hope I will be remembered as being an approachable, fair teacher and that my classes were enjoyable – even the poetry.

7. What is your biggest pet peeve?

People who chew with their mouths open including students chewing gum in class

8. What would be your dream destination for the summer holidays?

If there was no Covid and money no object then my dream destination would be Barbados as I was there on my honeymoon and it was fabulous.

9. What is your biggest achievement to date?

My three kids

10. Do you have any embarrassing memories teaching in school?

Students calling me Mam happens a lot. I fell up the steps outside my room about 10 years ago.

11. What are 3 adjectives that describe you?

Talkative, friendly, kind

12. Do you have any advice for the 6th year students this year?

Three pieces of advice – first of all remember that the leaving cert is not the most important thing in life, don't let it define you, it will come and go. Secondly I am a firm believer in the saying "What's for you won't pass you by." I believe that things happen for a reason. If things don't work out the first time there may be a reason and something bigger and better may be just around the corner. Finally be kind. Treat others the way you would like to be treated. Unkindness is ugly.

13. What's the best thing about being a teacher?

Apart from the summer holidays, you get to work with young people and that is an absolute privilege.

14. What is something that students would be surprised to find out about you?

I did my leaving cert in the Pres in Thurles even though I am born and reared in Limerick

15. If you were doing 'Come Dine With Me' at home, who would you invite?

Ms. White, Ms. Gibson and Ms. Sutton because while my cooking would not win any awards at least I would be guaranteed three fab meals when it was their turn.

Teacher Interview

Tracy Gibson

1. What is the hardest thing about being a teacher?
The corrections

2. Who's your fashion inspiration?
Jennifer Aniston, Holly Willoughby, Victoria Beckham, Megan Markle

15. If you were doing 'Come Dine With Me' at your home, who would you invite? ( can be dead or alive )
Tommy Tiernan, John F Kennedy, Mary McAleese, Graham Norton.

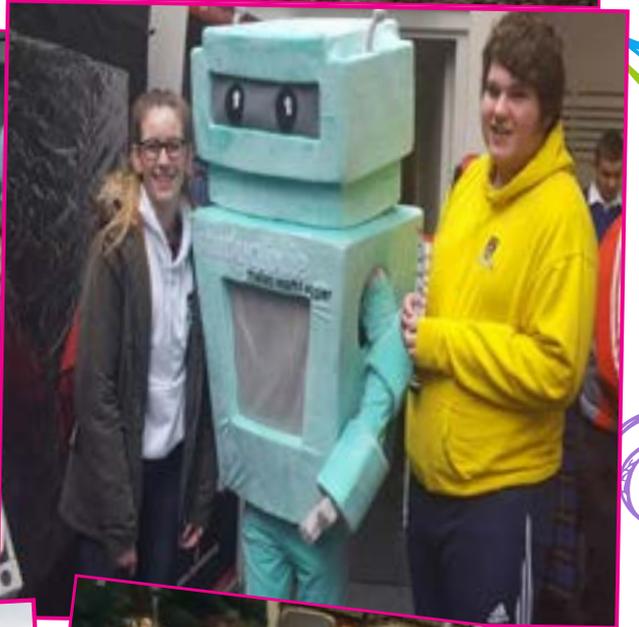

16. What are 3 adjectives that describe you?
Loyal, committed and fun

17. Do you have any advice for the 6th years students this year?
Be open to all opportunities that present to you, travel, make mistakes, learn from life's ups and downs, take chances, be open to making new friends, be true to yourself, learn something new every day, live your best life, learn from disappointments, get back up when knocked down, be kind to family, friends and most importantly to yourself.

18. What's the best thing about being a teacher?
The students . Guiding and supporting them as they navigate their way through secondary school. Seeing them grow from children to young adults with boundless possibilities .

TV 2017/18 Blast from the past!

Owww for Cow!

WHERE'S that CALF?

That calf is now a cow and has relocated to Rwanda and is helping a family there improve their lives.

Our year group organised the first MALE legwax in the school to raise the funds to buy the calf, which was reared locally and sent to Rwanda earlier this year. Well done everyone.

Say Owww for the COW.

Soccer

Soccer in the school is very important to students especially in first year as it can help you settle in and make new friends. In the last few years the school has progressed really well in Munster and Tipperary competitions reaching semi finals on a few occasions.

The school has also won the Dick Wood Cup 5 times including the last 3 years in a row. The teachers and staff are not only determined to win but also know how to have a laugh as well which is important. I'd like to thank Martin Coleman who is very heavily involved in soccer across every age group and also huge thanks to all teachers and staff that have coached so many students over the years.

Jake O'Donnell

SCHOOL SHOWS

The show has always been a special event as it brings the school community together. The cast build very close bonds of friendship and are very supportive of each other during the show and beyond. There is never a dull moment while taking part! Being part of a show helps boost confidence for all involved and I certainly benefited hugely from my involvement. It was truly an unforgettable experience. Every year a new show is chosen, and the choices have never been disappointing, with each year bringing something new to the stage. Our year group have had the opportunity to be part of or view shows such as Beauty and the Beast, Jesus Christ Superstar and The Addams Family.

Energy and talent is visible in every aspect of these productions. It is a huge collaboration of members of the whole school community with so many working together on and off stage. New talent is unearthed each year to join the more experienced cast members. The time and effort that goes into these productions is endless. Each show is superbly produced and directed by Mr. Murray, Ms. Sheils and Ms. Bradley.

Huge thanks to them and all staff involved year after year.
I know I speak for many when I say I will never forget my experience of the Musicals in Cashel Community School.
Ciaran Ryan

Choir

Joining the choir in school was one of the best decisions I ever made. Every week without fail I'd walk into a room filled with laughter and messing. Overall, it was an experience I'll never forget. I made so many friends, built my confidence massively and had so much fun. We had so many unforgettable experiences as a group; singing at the RTE mass, the school productions of Beauty and the Beast, Jesus Christ Superstar and the Addams Family. Every single outing and competition we had was fantastic. The choir was filled with the goofiest people I know and every practice was the highlight of the week. Even a full lockdown couldn't keep us apart. We recorded a song while social distancing and while it was very different singing on camera together, I wouldn't have missed it for the world.

Eoin Foley

Lourdes

Elma Casey

Students from 5th year going to Lourdes is an annual event that has the reputation of being unforgettable and truly unique for all concerned. Mairead McCarthy, Emma Ryan, Aisling Lonergan, Aisling Moloughney and myself got the opportunity to go to Lourdes last year. It was a really memorable and enjoyable experience and definitely changed our perspective on life.

Our job was to help the pilgrims from the dioceses get around, chat to them and support them. We were up early every morning and worked hard. The pilgrims were all so lovely and we had great fun together. We were part of many different masses and events. Many of the sick and elderly had such great positivity and strong faith which was inspiring.

We also got to know and become friends with many people our own age from all over the diocese. In the evenings we had great fun with sing songs and music and we made great friends with helpers from all over Tipperary and Limerick. We will remember this experience forever. Thanks to everyone who made it possible especially Mr. Nolan and our school.

Senior Student Council 2020

The 2020 Senior Student Council strived to influence positive change in our school, however difficult this endeavour can be. In a school community as big as ours, whenever there is a new and innovative idea for change or improvement, there are many hurdles to clear and much red tape to cross. However, the school management officials and the student council have never shied away from the lengthy processes which lead to positive change. Instead of being somewhat of a complaints processor and a notion which is often linked to the idea of a student council and we wanted to be enablers for the student body to give back to our community through a series of small gestures.

The first of these was a sizeable collection of second-hand eyeglasses which were donated to the local Lion's club. After this, our ambition was to leave behind a set of outdoor benches financed by fundraisers involving the musical and sporting talent which is already so bountiful in our school. Unfortunately, the unprecedented pandemic cut this effort short. We have no doubt however, that the Student Council of 2021 will continue with the hard work and deliberation over how best to add to the school environment.

Along with small projects such as these, the Student Council worked to gather and disperse information among the student body in a comprehensible and efficient manner, and to represent the thoughts and ideas of the students regarding matters such as dress code and uniform, senior record books and various school facilities. Most notable of these was the change in policy regarding ear piercings.

Student Council members also served as organisers on invaluable sub-committees including the Green Schools Committee, the Debs Committee, the Yearbook Committee and the Mural Committee. Each member of the council contributed greatly to the debates and propositions that circulated around our meetings in Room 14 every Tuesday. Undoubtedly, the work of the Student Council throughout this school year was necessary in order to improve school life and ensure that any suggested changes to school policy were anticipated, understood and appreciated by the student body as a whole. The Student Council members themselves also benefited hugely from serving on the council and learning to delegate tasks, weigh up the advantages and disadvantages associated with new school policy and organise fundraisers. We hope that the class of 2020 feel that they have been adequately and fairly represented by our members and we thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity to serve on this most useful medium of communication for students and management.

Thank you, Jennifer Fogarty
